About Boys Town California

Since opening in 1991, Boys Town California has continued to expand its services to meet the needs of troubled children and families. The site has five residential Family Homes on 80 acres in Trabuco Canyon. Boys Town California also provides In-Home Family Services to help troubled families stay together and Community Support Services to provide assistance in a variety of youth, parent and family areas. Each year, Boys Town Integrated Continuum of Care® services touch the lives of 48,000 people in California.

Family Support Services
Common Sense Parenting

Common Sense Parenting® (CSP) is a practical, skill-based program that provides easy-to-learn techniques to help you with today’s parenting challenges. CSP is for parents or caregivers of children ages 13-18. These classes incorporate proven methods that were researched and developed at Boys Town.

Common Sense Parenting® offers training for parents who want to build on their existing skills or learn new ways of dealing with their children’s behaviors. Professional parent trainers teach the course.

CSP Classes can help you

- Build strong, healthy relationships with your children
- Address a child’s problem behavior
- Minimize problems that disrupt family life
- Raise responsible, caring children

You’ll learn valuable skills, including how to:

- Communicate effectively
- Avoid power struggles
- Give positive attention
- Control your emotions
- Balance discipline with affection
- Praise your child’s good behavior

CSP classes are offered as two-hour sessions once a week for 6 weeks, throughout Orange County.

Classes at NO COST to Orange County parents and caregivers with children 13-18 years of age
