*Eligible Charitable Nonprofit Organization Information

In order to qualify, volunteer hours must adhere to the following guidelines:

- In the United States - a non-profit organization that maintains current 501(c)(3) status under U.S. Federal Tax Code
- Secular (non-faith based) activities. Volunteer hours with a church or religious group must benefit the greater community (e.g. food kitchen, homeless shelter, home-building for low-income families, or other programs whose primary purpose is non-faith based community outreach). Volunteer activities that DO NOT qualify include: religious education, retreats, alter service and youth ministry.

The Walt Disney Company Charitable Giving Guidelines

- All organizations must adhere to the following eligibility guidelines:
o A U.S. nonprofit charitable corporation that has been granted tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ("Code"), or, if a K-12 public school or school district, under Section 501(c)(3) or Section 170(c)(1) of the Code
o Electronically verifiable in the IRS Business Master File
o U.S. Patriot Act compliant

- Ineligible Organizations:
  o Organizations that discriminate in the provision of services unlawfully or in a manner inconsistent with Disney’s policies on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, national origin, age, marital status, mental or physical ability, or sexual orientation
  o Organizations that operate or support activities that are counter to the policies of The Walt Disney Company o Organizations that are actively engaged in highly controversial issues or use controversial tactics to advocate their position. A controversial issue is a serious matter that has an impact on society or its institutions where different segments of the community have strong opposing positions. A controversial tactic is an unlawful activity, or an extreme action that intentionally damages or threatens people or property.
  o Labor unions or trade associations o Fraternal or political organizations

- The Walt Disney Company reserves the right (in its sole discretion) to change, suspend, revoke or terminate its charitable giving at any time, without advance notice, and to make the final determination of the eligibility of all organizations
